HARITINI

P A N O P O U L O U

Singer, Guitarist

Haritini Panopoulou has created a special solo program for classical guitar and voice, which is being presented alongside the release of her album "Mystic Emotions" by the recording company Heaven Music. "Mystic Emotions" is a collection of nine songs of the international pop and classic rock music scene, arranged by the world-famous guitarist Panagiotis Margaritis.

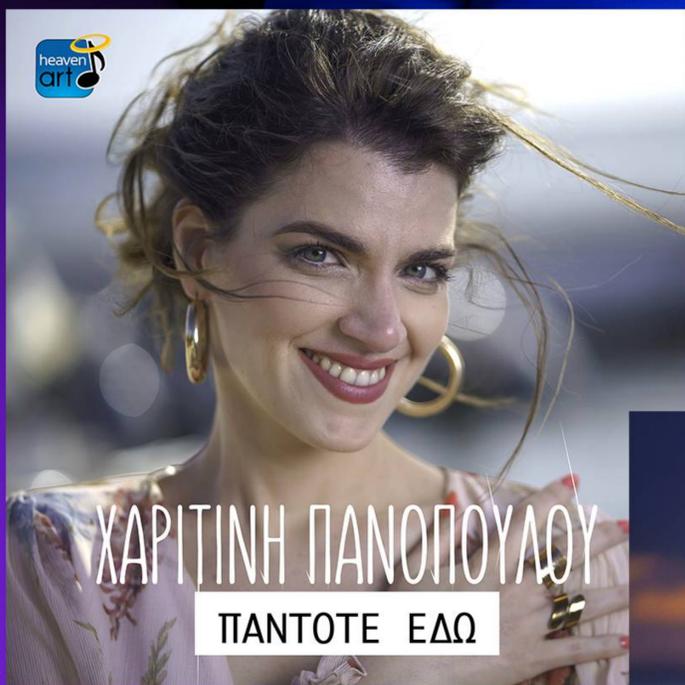

With a distinctive musical aesthetic, Haritini delivers beloved songs in a way that captures the soulful and dynamic sounds of the guitar, as well as the sweet and intense tones of her voice. Her performances evoke powerful emotions that resonate with audiences and stay with them long after the show is over.

Haritini's music is a blend of classic and modern influences, brought to life with her own artistic vision. Her performances are a celebration of the beauty and complexity of music, and she brings her own personal touch to each and every song. Whether she's performing a classic rock ballad, a contemporary pop hit or a Greek song, Haritini's music is a testament to the power of sound to heal and inspire.

Combining her expertise in classical guitar, contemporary music, and folk songs, Haritini has graced the stages of prestigious concert venues in Athens such as the Odeon of Herodes Atticus and the Athens Concert Hall, as well as other significant music stages. Her vocal performances have been featured on various musical programs on Greek radio and TV.

From classical rock to modern pop, Haritini's repertoire of songs encompasses a wide range of genres that are sure to delight audiences. Her own compositions, including "Fantastika!", "Ki An", and "Psema Kai Oneiro", showcase her skills as a songwriter and add a personal touch to her performances. Her upcoming album will feature these and other songs that reveal her unique artistic vision.
